Resources at CAPS Dr. Ian Kellems presented this PowerPoint presentation . Highlights from the presentation: Promoting an upstream focus – efforts require multiple units at OSU to get involved; not just CAPS. Some examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Kognito Online Mental Health Training<ul style="list-style-type: none">Avatar-based training708 faculty/staff have completed the trainingOver 11,000 students have completed the trainingHas helped with gaining confidence to interact with students in crisis• Identity-based mental health support – helps with both downstream and upstream<ul style="list-style-type: none">Initiated by student request; positive & well-received by students<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ Coordinators of Black/African Student Mental Health & Wellness✓ Coordinator of Indigenous Student Mental Health & Wellness✓ Coordinator of LGBTQ+ Student Mental Health & Wellness✓ Coordinator of Military Student Mental Health & Wellness• Mandatory syllabus statement<ul style="list-style-type: none">“Reach out for Success” Syllabus statementPuts students in a position of actionNormalizes strugglesEncourages students to reach out connections they already have (faculty, etc.)Connects students to resources	Ian Kellems

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bacc Core reforms Every Transitions course will include mental health modules, created by CAPS • College of Engineering and CAPS Partnership Started summer 2022 Initiated by feedback from CoE Academic Advisors CoE funded a counselor embedded in the college, in Johnson Hall Mental Health Advisory Board formed, including faculty, staff, and students Great example of partnering with a college Pitching to all deans in May 10-12% of student body visits CAPS, which means that up to 90% never come to CAPS. Important that we intervene at the academic level/college level – if we want to reach more students Examples of downstream efforts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stepped-Care Treatment Model • Expanding service options for students – variety of services available Group therapy Single session clinic Drop-in crisis support Embedded counselors Short-term individual therapy Anytime Anywhere App • Peer Support – coming soon; working with advisory board • Anytime Anywhere Engagement positive
Dam Proud Day Carolyn and Jesus provided helpful resources for Dam Proud Day to share widely. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $1,000,000 in challenges for the day already • Estimating total of $2,000,000 for Dam Proud Day – Student Affairs • Believing in Our Students: Enhancing Success and Well-Being • Website is live: https://www.damproudday.org/organizations/division-student-affairs • Important reminder: only day-of gifts count toward challenges There is a broad range of content available in Box to help promote Dam Proud Day — in advance and on April 26 — such as images and scripts for email, social media and texting. This folder now includes a short video reel sized for Instagram to promote the Student Affairs Student Success Fund.	Carolyn Boyd Jesus Rangel
Student Affairs Updates Dan announced that Kevin Dougherty and Brandi Fuhrman have new positions/titles in the Division of Student Affairs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kevin Dougherty is serving as Senior Associate Vice Provost and Dean of Students; taking on a greater role in divisional leadership • Brandi Fuhrman is serving as Associate Vice Provost for Student Affairs; expanding collaboration with Academic Affairs in areas of career development, student success, academic advising, etc. 	Dan Larson Kevin Dougherty

OSU's Strategic Plan 4.0 is ending in 2023.

Much effort is being put into developing the next strategic plan.

Dan provided some areas of focus for the next plan.

Kevin talked about ways in which the university is engaging participation in the development of the next plan.

- Town hall feedback forums (virtual platform, OSU-Cascades, OSU Corvallis campus, forum for students)
- Strategic Planning Committee
- Strategic Plan: Input Survey

OSU Assist

- Mobile response team launched in September 2022
- Great level of impact; much appreciation across campus of mobile team
- Moderate changes include a direct connection option to the unit as opposed to only accessing via police dispatch
- Other institutions are reaching out for information about OSU Assist; OSU colleagues are presenting at conferences, etc.

Student Engagement

- Engagement is plentiful across campus
- President Murthy has taken on high level of engagement with students
 - Pie in the Plaza – fall term final week
 - Pretzels in the Plaza – winter term finals week
 - Student leaders’ reception
